

WALL Literary Journal

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS DEADLINE: Feb. 25, 2022

CATEGORIES: Poetry, Short Stories, Personal Narratives, Art, and Photography

Your piece may be chosen for Saddleback College's literary journal, which received a First Place Award in the 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019 & 2020 Literary Magazine Contest sponsored by the American Scholastic Press Association (ASPA). ASPA named WALL 2017, 2018 & 2020 Outstanding Community College Literary-Art Magazine.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Each work must be an original, unpublished piece submitted by a Saddleback College student enrolled Spring 2021, Summer 2021, Fall 2021, or Spring 2022. Submit a completed submission form with each entry. Along with your entry, please also submit a short bio of no more than 3 sentences, describing your educational/professional background; experience with literary work and/or art; and website/online address. You may submit a piece in more than one category, but only one will be published. If you have questions, please contact Professor Gina Shaffer at gshaffer@saddleback.edu.

Written Work:

Short stories and personal narratives should be 1,700 words maximum (approx. 5-6 pages). Type must be left-justified and double-spaced. Poetry should be 32 lines maximum and lines of type should be single-spaced. Reasonable layout preferences (spacing, centering, etc.) are allowed for poetry. All poetry, short stories, and personal narratives should be typed in Times New Roman 12-point font easily readable for a scanner. Remove name from written work. Use title as header so we can identify your work. Work may be edited by staff for length or house style.

To submit written work, please follow these instructions:

- Submit electronically by scanning in the submission form and sending it along with your bio and the written work as a Microsoft Word document to the following email address:
saddlebackWALL@gmail.com

Artwork and Photography:

Please be specific in describing your piece on the submission form. Indicate the medium and size of the original artwork.

To submit artwork and photography, please follow these instructions.

- Submit in the form of a digital photo at 300 dpi in TIFF format no smaller than 8 x 10 inches and send it to the following email address: saddlebackWALL@gmail.com along with a scanned copy of the submission form. Please label the file with your last name and the title of the work. Please also include a bio as described above under Submission Guidelines.
